Genelli keeps the finest artists in free-hand pastel and oil work in the city, and makes life-size portraits for prices ranging from $5 to $100.

The Leipziger Tageblatt gives an enthusiastic account of an organ recital recently given by Mr. Clarence Eddy, the eminent Chicago organist, at St. Thomas' Church, Leipzig. After dwelling upon the "phenomenal" technique displayed by the player, and the extraordinary ease with which he managed his pedals, the journal concludes: "The dexterity manifested by the artist in the use of the registers, without in the least degree interfering with his playing, was something quite new to us. Altogether, Mr. Eddy's performance has greatly increased our respect for our foreign competitors in the art of organ-playing."

M. Saint-Saens has left Paris for Spain, where he is to remain for one month.

The Queen of Roumania, known in the world of letters as Carmen Sylva, has finished a volume of poems, entitled "Sea Songs," which are to be set to music by August Bungert. She is now writing the libretto for a grand opera.

The Chicago Auditorium will open with its inaugural opera season on the evening of Dec. 10. The company is a very large one, with the divine Adelina Patti at the head of the list. The ensemble includes Mme. Emma Albani, Mme. Lillian Nordica, Sig. Commendatore Francesco Tamagno, Sig. Luigi Ravelli, Sig. Guiseppe del Puente, and the veteran Ardit as director. There are to be seventy musicians in the orchestra. With the chorus, ballet and supernumeraries, there will be no fewer than 250 people on the stage.

The crusade against homely ballet-dancers continues at the Vienna Opera House. The matter has been carried into court, and has been decided in favor of the theatrical direction, thereby authorized to discharge any and all dancers who fail to come up to the required standard of good looks and graceful figure.

Mr. P. S. Gilmore met with the greatest success he ever experienced with his tours on the Pacific coast. The Exposition Music Hall at Portland, the theatres at Tacoma, Seattle and Sacramento were overcrowded at high prices, and the first four days of the week he packed the large Mechanics' Pavilion at San Francisco, having the assistance of the Handel and Hayden Society evenings and a children's chorus of 1,000 voices afterwards. The "Alpine Storm," by Charles Kunkel, proves one of his most popular numbers.

For Bronchitis, Colds and Coughs,

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is an unfailing remedy. It soothes irritated membranes, stops the coughing, and allays inflammation. Taken in the early stages of the disease, the cure is almost instantaneous. It is well to have this preparation always at hand.

THE MUSICAL UNION.

The Musical Union will give its first concert of the season, Tuesday, December 10. Mrs. Mayo-Rhodes and Mr. Herman Epstein will be the soloists. The concerts will take place, as usual, in the large Exposition Hall, and promise to be the best ever given by this admirable society. The box office will be open November 23, at the Exposition building. The rule being first come first served, no extra seats will be reserved. The Dress Rehearsal will take place December 9, at 2 P. M.

MENDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club continues under the management of Bollman Bros., and will give its usual series of Concerts at Memorial Hall, 19th and Lucas Place. The first concert takes place Tuesday evening, the 17th inst. The following well-known artists will participate in the series: Mrs. Georgia Lee Cunningham, Mrs. E. Karst, Mrs. Louie A. Peebles, Mrs. O. H. Bollman, Mrs. G. H. Wiseman, Mr. W. M. Porteous, Mr. Bernard Dierkes, Mr. G. H. Wiseman, The K. J. B. Ladies' Quartette and the Hatton Glee Club.

GERAK CONCERT.

Miss Lottie Gerak made her debut before a St. Louis audience at the large Exposition hall, Wednesday eve., Nov. 20. She was greeted on the occasion by a very large audience. Miss Gerak was introduced by an appropriate speech, delivered by Mayor Noonan. He stated that the critic, Mr. William Steinway, President of the great house of Steinway & Sons, New York, had pronounced her a pianist of a high order, and also that she had been recognized as such in Vienna, Europe, where she had studied for the past four years. The pieces performed by Miss Gerak were "Polonaise, E major," Liszt; "Nocturne," Chopin; Sonata, "C Sharp Minor," Beethoven; "Don Juan," Mozart-Liszt, and as encores "Traumerel," Schumann, "Mennet," Paderewski, and "Valse Posthume," E flat, Chopin. Every number was received with much applause and indicated a great admiration on the part of the audience. Miss Gerak is just entering her artistic career, and we hope to see her triumphs increase with time.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club rendered "Andante and Variation," Quartette for strings, Beethoven, and "First Movement," Piano Quintette, Schumann, and was received with the greatest appreciation. Mrs. Louie A. Peebles favored the audience with Gounod's great aria from "Muriel." She was at her best, and nothing but an encore, which was graciously given, would answer the continued applause that followed. Mrs. Oscar H. Bollman was as much a favorite as ever, and sang a grand aria from "Huguenots," Meyerbeer. This was followed by two encores, one of which was a ballad by Robyn. The vocal numbers were accompanied by Mr. Alfred G. Robyn in his usual most artistic style.

The piano used was a magnificent Steinway Grand, which answered the most exacting demand. All the pieces played by Miss Gerak, as well as the "Spinnetried," by Hollaender played by the Mendelssohn Q. Club for encore, have appeared in KUNKEL'S MUSICAL REVIEW within the past two years. They are in Kunkel's Royal Edition.

CITY NOTES.

Wm. Navo has removed his residence to 1709 Market Street.
R. S. Poppen wrote a "Hunting Song" for the Hatton Quartette.
Harry Walker will most likely be Wiseman's successor at St. George's Church.
Percy Blackmer has been engaged as basso of the Third Congregational Church.
Henry Groffman sang a "Prayer" by Tosti as his first selection for St. George's Church.
The Hatton Quartette sang the "Harvest," a cantata by Garrett, at the Christ Church Cathedral.
The K. J. B. Ladies' Quartette sang at the reception given at the Merchants' Exchange to the Pan-American Delegates.
E. R. Kroeger's "D Minor Quartette," which met with such great success at Philadelphia, will be played in Detroit and New York.
Louis J. Dubuque has taken the place of A. G. Weinman, at St. Alphonsus' Church, on Grand Ave. Mr. Weinman has gone to Milwaukee.
Mrs. Anna Strothotte, of 2916 Morgan Street, has returned from San Francisco and resumed the teaching of piano. She has a very successful class.
The Young Folks' Society, of Pilgrim Church, under the direction of C. H. Johnson, is making admirable headway, and is a source of pride to the Church.
Kunkel Bros. have issued a very fine edition in sheet music of the bass solo, "The Lost Chord," by A. Sullivan. It is dedicated to the popular baritone, John A. Robinson.
Miss Lottie Gerak has accepted the Denver citizens' invitation to give them a concert. She will leave for Denver in time for December 2, the date set for the concert.
Miss Eugenie Dussuchal sang two solos, Tancred, "D Tanti Palpit" (Rossini), and "Chanson d l'Almee" (Delibes), at the last meeting of the St. Louis Chautauqua Union.

Mrs. Rhodes sang "My Redeemer," by Dudley Buck, and "Crucifix," by Faure, at her first service at the Second Baptist Church. She has been engaged for the coming year.

The Baptist Ladies' Society gave a concert at Cabanne Station. Mrs. Hardey, Mrs. Ames, Jesse Cozzens, W. M. Porteous, J. A. Kieselhorst and Aug. Halter were on the programme.

Miss Katie E. Wright, a very successful teacher of piano and voice, has opened a studio at 3204 Pine Street. She has met with flattering success in her profession, and comes highly recommended.

The Burns Anniversary, which will be celebrated at the exposition, will be a grand affair. The selections will be entirely Scotch. The Hatton Quartette will participate, and promises to outdo itself.

Miss Laura E. Fisher, the soprano, who was graduated with high honors from the Beethoven Conservatory, is receiving pupils in vocal culture and pianoforte instruction, at her address, 1825 Rutger Street.

P. G. Anton, Jr., the talented violoncellist, is a member of the Mendelssohn Quintette Club. The other members are Messrs. Geo. Heerich, 1st violin, Val. Schopp, 2nd violin, Louis Mayer, viola, and Victor Ehling, pianist.

Messrs. Kunkel and Kroeger played "Etoile du Nord" and "Variations on Beethoven"—Saint-Saens, for two pianos at the Church of the Messiah. For encore, they gave Suite de Valses, a piano duet by Mr. Kroeger.

Miss L. Wray Garey, organist of St. John's Episcopal Church, is to be complimented upon the admirable results obtained with her choir. The principals are Mr. Mosby, tenor, Mr. Hawken, bass, and Mrs. Hubbard, leader of the boys.

The Beethoven Mandolin and Guitar Orchestra has an extensive repertoire of the latest music. It numbers the first people of the city among its patrons; correspondence may be addressed care of C. I. Wynne & Co., music dealers, 916 Olive Street.

Louis Mayer, the popular conductor, has removed from 2000 Papin Street to 2125 Olive Street. Mr. Mayer has won an enviable reputation as a teacher of violin, violoncello and instrumentation, and is much sought after by students of neighboring States.

George Heerich, the violinist, is as much in demand as a fine artist could be. He had little time to rest after his European trip. He is justly appreciated by his pupils, for Mr. Heerich is one of the most conscientious teachers of the violin we have.

The Germania Club will produce the "Sleeping Queen," by Balfe, at its hall, on the 7th inst. The principals are: Miss Libbie McCarthy, Mrs. McDonald (nee Fredda Stone), and Messrs. Wayman McCreery and W. M. Porteous. Mr. Waldauer is director.

Henry Groffman is engaged at St. George's Church for the present in place of George Wiseman. Mr. Groffman has been urged to stay for the coming year also, but has not decided, having an offer of a first class quartet position from a certain prosperous church.

An Opera Co., with Miss Tanner as prima donna, is expected here this winter. It is possible that a combination with the Hatton Quartette may be effected, through the efforts of Wayman McCreery, in which event, a popular season of opera can be looked for.

Mrs. Judge McKeigan gave a musicale and reception at her home in Vandeventer place. The program, which was printed upon blue satin ribbon, offered numbers by Mrs. Louie A. Peebles, Messrs. G. Wiseman, Jesse Cozzens, Thomas Moore and Sig. G. Parisi.

Fred. W. Norsch was made the recipient of a very elegant charm by the St. Louis Damen Chor. Mrs. L. Schaeenemann made the presentation address, and Mr. Hammerstein rendered a few appropriate piano solos. A fine collation was spread, and a pleasant time indulged in.

Miss Fanny Otto has returned to this country from Paris, where she has been studying for the past two years and a-half under Mme. Marchesi. Miss Otto is a native of St. Louis, where she studied piano and voice with Victor Ehling and Mrs. Kate Brainard, respectively, before going abroad.

F. W. Humphrey threw open his house in honor of J. Fisher, the celebrated New York piano maker, who was a guest of Bollman Bros. while in the city. A very fine musicale was given, among the participants of which were the Misses Cowen, Mr. Steebe, of New York, and the Hatton Quartette.

Miss Jessie Foster, prima donna soprano, assisted by Charles Kunkel, pianist, and Arthur D. Weld, baritone, will give a grand concert at the Liederkranz Hall, Belleville, on the 5th inst. The programme is as follows: 1. Grand Piano Solo—"Moonlight Sonata," Op. 27, No. 2, von Beethoven, (a) Adagio Sostenuto; (b) Allegretto; (c) Presto Agitato, Charles Kunkel. 2. Baritone Solo—"I Fear No Foe," Pinsuti, Arthur Weld. 3. Soprano Solo—"Nobil Signor," Huguenots, Meyerbeer, Miss Jessie Foster. 4. Baritone Solo—"The Sailor," Kroeger, Arthur Weld. 5. Baritone Solo—"Song of Hydras the Cretan," Elliott, Arthur Weld. 8. Soprano Solo—"Echo Song," Eckert, Miss Jessie Foster. 9. Piano Solo—"Ungarische Fantasia," Liszt, Charles Kunkel.

Miss Strong, assisted by Mrs. K. G. Broadus, vocalist, gave a Bach Recital at 603 N. Jefferson Ave., Saturday, Nov. 2, at 2:30 P. M.

Roscoe Warren Lucy, whose music rooms are located at 2645 Olive Street, is having splendid success. Mamie Sherry, a young miss of 13 years and pupil of Mr. Lucy, was heard in Strelezki's popular "Valse Caprice." Her rendition of it was very good, which was expected, of course, and showed Mr. Lucy to be a careful and interested teacher.

The K. J. B. Ladies' Quartette sang at the Farewell Reception of Rev. Dr. Merrill, of the First Congregational Church, giving the popular "Blue Bells of Scotland," and for encore, "The Cuckoo." The "Y. M. C. A." and the "Artists' Guild" also secured the services of this quartette, and at each place it acquired new honors.

The St. Louis Ideal Banjo Club, composed of Messrs. H. J. Isbell, Leader, C. W. Hughes, J. T. Crosby, S. M. Stringer and R. T. Kennon, has organized for the coming season, and is ready to fill all engagements that may be contracted for. Address all communications to R. T. Kennon, 1100 Washington Avenue.

The Success of the K. J. B. Ladies' Quartette is quite noticeable, and it must be added, in every way deserved. Its directress, Mrs. Kate J. Brainard, is a very successful and a very conscientious trainer, and her admirable work is abundantly shown in the excellence of this quartette. The Ladies of which it is composed are worthy of the highest praise for their artistic handling of everything undertaken. The quartette is open for public and private engagements. All communications may be addressed to Mrs. Kate J. Brainard, in care of Mary Institute, Beaumont and Chestnut Sts.

Charles C. Berthold, after six years' practical experience as an instructor upon the Banjo and Mandolin in this city, where he has had upwards of five hundred pupils under his personal tuition and supervision, has located at 2738 Washington Avenue, where he has opened a studio for the instruction of admirers of these popular instruments. Mr. Berthold has hundreds of testimonials from the elite of the city.

The Boatmen's Saving Bank and the German Savings Institution have let the contracts for installing electric incandescent light in their banking rooms, to the Union Electrical Construction Co., 312 N. 11th St. This firm has, among many others, just completed the installation of light in the magnificent salesroom of Messrs. Merriek, Walsh and Phelps, on Olive St., and the residences of Messrs. G. Niemann, S. L. Cohen, of Lindell Ave., and V. Mersman, of Vandeventer Place.

Hon. Amos J. Cummings' lecture, at the Exposition building, was preceded by the following programme: 1. Instrumental Quartette—"Zampa," Harold, Misses M. Boehmann and L. Anton and Messrs. Ray Douglas and P. G. Anton Jr., 2. Vocal Quartette—Waltz, Vogel, Messrs. Ernest Keisker, Ferd. Doerr, Bernard Dierkes and Edw. Dierkes. 3. Soprano Solo—"The Skylark," Hatton, Miss Bertha A. M. DeSoto was favored with a good concert, given by Messrs. August Rosen and Conrath, pianists, Miss Emma Rosen, soprano, Miss Lulu Kunkel, violinist, and Mr. C. F. Heckel, tenor. The most effective number was the International Fantasia, "Grand Potpourri No. 2," Epstein, introducing Miserere, from Verdi's "Il Trovatore;" Valse from Gounod's "Faust;" Airs from Offenbach's "Grande Duchesse;" Airs from Suppe's "Pique Dame;" "Star-Spangled Banner;" "God Save the Queen;" and "Yankee Doodle" with Variations. The audience was delighted, and hoped to hear the participants often.

August Rosen, organist of the Third Congregational Church, met with what might have proved a fatal accident. While attempting to board an out-bound narrow-gauge train, he missed his footing, fell, and was dragged some distance. He escaped with a severe bruising. He is up and about with the help of a cane.

Arthur D. Weld enters upon his third year's choir service at the Synagogue, Twenty-first and Olive. Mr. Weld hails from Boston, where he is most favorably known; he is a hard worker, and gives the greatest satisfaction wherever engaged. Mr. Poppen is organist, Mrs. Peebles soprano, Mrs. Wood alto, and Labarge tenor.

Prof. Jarvis has organized the Endymion Society, whose object will be the public rendition of the best glees, choral works and cantatas. The society is in a flourishing state, having now a membership of fifty-five good voices. The meetings are held at St. Peter's Church, every Wednesday at 8 p. m., and are attended by some of the best West End singers. Admission is open to all good voices. The first cantata, "Endymion," by E. Aspa, will be given early in the new year.

It was rumored on Thanksgiving day that a certain leading organist had precipitately fled the city. Upon inquiry, it proved groundless. It would indeed be a sensation for that same organist to disappear, but he is here to stay and we congratulate ourselves on that fact. Now there are scores of organists whose immediate deliverance from the city would be cause for a real thanksgiving Sunday, and a boon to a suffering public. Who will be the first such organist to start?

Flour manufacturers and merchants realize the necessity of a perfect baking apparatus in which to test the good qualities of their goods. When such prominent individuals in this line as J. F. Imbs, Chas. A. Eberle, St. Louis, T. Koenigsmark, Waterloo, Ills., and C. N. Hahn, Belleville, Ills., select the Joy Steel Range, it bespeaks a mountain of praise for that article.

The reason that Genell's photos are always the best is that he keeps the best and highest-salaried artists to be had for love or money. Studio, 923 Olive Street.

MAJOR AND MINOR.

Go to Milford's for Hot Oyster Loaf.

The Utica Conservatory of Music, under the direction of Louis Lombard, has given some very fine concerts during November.

A performance is reported from Brisbane, Australia, of Meyerbeer's "Le Prophète," sung in Volapük, the new "universal language." The performance is said to have greatly pleased, and to have been repeated several times.

H. J. Isbell, the well-known banjoist, will be pleased to receive applicants at his studio, 2224 Chestnut Street. Mr. Isbell refers with pride to a host of names, representing our very best families, whom he has taught. Mr. Isbell means business, and his claims to being a thorough and first-class teacher are certainly substantiated in a most satisfactory manner.

I. S. Taylor, the architect, says as follows in praise of the Adamant Plaster:

H. J. Meyer, Esq.

St. Louis, Sept. 24th, 1889.

DEAR SIR:—I understand that Mr. W. A. Waters goes to Dallas to represent you in the manufacture of "Adamant" Wall Plaster. I take pleasure in saying that I think Adamant is one of the very best, if not the best material of its kind presented to the building trade. I have used this material on one of the most expensive and elegantly finished houses in this city, and it has greatly pleased the owner, builder and architect. It can be readily and rapidly applied, it hardens in the most thorough manner, and its quality of quick drying renders it invaluable in a hurried job. I hope that the people of Dallas will use this material on many of the handsome and substantial houses now being erected in their city.

Most respectfully, ISAAC S. TAYLOR.

C. M. v. WEBER.

Oysters in every style, at Milford's.

Victor Hoffmann, the young violinist, who is now teaching at the Scranton Conservatory of Music, was paid a high tribute by Ovide Musen, the celebrated violinist, with whom he played in a concert there. He predicted a brilliant future for the young artist.

A Hit that Tells.—We quote the following from a Hamilton (Canada) paper, in reference to one of Gilmore's concerts there: "The descriptive number, An Alpine Storm, was the most popular piece of the evening. It was given with all the mechanical effects, including lightning, the hissing of the rain and wind, the roll of heaven's artillery, the singing of birds and the tinkling of the sheep-bells. It was in every respect most effective and realistic. In response to a spontaneous and enthusiastic encore, Mr Gilmore gave Van Gerhard's "Gypsy Queen" Gavotte. The "Alpine Storm" is published by Kunkel Bros., St. Louis, and is one of the most effective piano solos ever written. It is also arranged as a duet. Every piano-player should have it.

It is announced in the papers of St. Petersburg that Gounod is to give in that city first, and in Moscow afterward, a series of concerts, the programmes of which will be devoted to several of his works.

In view of the long adoration offered by her votaries to Mme. Marchesi, of France, the following excerpt from a European letter to the Chicago Inter-Ocean will be read with some interest: "She taught in many of the conservatories of Italy, Austria and Germany, never staying long in one place, always making enemies, but always shrewdly bettering herself at each move. She saw the tendency of the age to patent medicines, and devoted herself to specialties that could be advertised, high notes, trills and cadenzas, and in them is thorough and makes her pupils work hard, accomplishing phenomenal results with a high voice that can stand her method, but she sacrifices quality to execution and pays no attention to articulation. Her first success was Gerster, though she claims to have taught Mme. Kraus and poor Ilma di Murska. Then came Emma Nevada; and many pupils were attracted by the brilliancy of her singing. Whenever a musical lion is in Paris, the Madame, in point lace and diamonds, and a smile of satisfaction on her hard, thin mouth, gives a reception in her salon. The girls are arranged in platoons, each wearing her national colors, and favorites come forward in turn to lay their wreaths at the feet of Rubinstein, Verdi, Boito, or Massenet, as the hero may be. A programme is made up from the composer's work in whose honor the fete is given, and as each new voice is heard in some one of his arias, he claps his hands and says: 'Phenomenal! finest in the world!'—and Madame scores a great advertisement. She harms many voices, but in the number of pupils who are attracted by this reclame she gets some who are fine. But the world is getting tired of her successes; they do all the same things, the same high notes, the same staccatos, the same bird-songs and cadenzas. Why, I know a half a dozen who can do Miss Sanderson's 'Eiffel Tower note.' Marchesi pupils with high F's and G's are beginning to be looked on by operative managers as drugs in the market. She is a shrewd woman, of great personal tact and force of character. She gives herself the airs of a queen, and permits pupils to kiss her hand. This time the shark has grown to be a whale."

It is in chamber music, within the narrow confines of four walls, that a musician shows his mettle. In opera, on the stage, on the other hand, how much is covered by a brilliant exterior! But in chamber music the critical eye of a neighbor detects all the shreds that are meant to cover the weak parts. SCHUMANN.
